A valuable resource for collection development, reader guidance, or classroom reading, this book is your guide for helping tween and teen students find all the volumes in a series they love and identify similar series to enjoy.

- Fills the gap in traditional information sources on young adult literature that include very little information regarding series fiction
- Allows librarians to find series by title, book title, author, genre, and subject matter
- Features Accelerated Reader (AR) notations
- Functions as both a readers' advisory guide and a collection development tool
- Lists series especially suitable for girls, boys, and reluctant readers, allowing quick access to the best choices for specific audiences
