Marilyn Monroe: Private and Confidential Michelle Morgan

This valuable new biography contains a huge collection of primary source material on Marilyn Monroe. It includes over 70 rare and unpublished photographs, including locations from the various stages of her life—the schools she attended, the ballroom where she danced with first husband Jim Dougherty, the street where she was attacked by an intruder, and candid shots of her on the sets of films. Michelle Morgan has interviewed a broad range of people who knew Marilyn, including family and friends, work colleagues, and more casual acquaintances. More than 50 interviewees are featured, many never put on the record before, including a large number from her orphaned childhood and early years—details of which have remained until now mysterious. Documentary sources range from the private testimony of her gynecologist, to previously undisclosed Laurence Olivier papers relating to Marilyn's time in England.

Following a series of sensationalist biographies of Marilyn Monroe in recent years, this comprehensive, meticulously researched volume brings an important, fresh perspective to the many controversies in her life, and will serve as an essential sourcebook of documentary and photographic evidence.
