HAWIKUH AND THE SEVEN CITIES OF CIBOLA F. Ross Holland Jr.

This National Park Service historical study describes Hawikuh, a Zuni pueblo in New Mexico and its involvement in the Spanish explorations of the New World. It was thought to be one of the "Cities of Gold" sought by Coronado and others in their search for wealth and fame. This report provides an interesting look into the explorations of Fray Marcos de Niza, Esteban, Coronado and other Spanish adventurers into the southwest of America.
