Jess is on the hunt for a wanted man who he finds in the town of Navarro, Texas. While there, he saves the owner of a saloon and his young son, Dudley. He leaves Navarro only to be sought out by Dudley again who asks for his help.

Jess returns to Navarro to help Dudley and his pa, but while there, he finds out that the town officials seem to have a strange grip on the townsfolk. All the men in town are afraid and won't fight against the town officials and a rich rancher seems to have some strange dealings going on.

He leaves Navarro again and runs into two Texas Rangers, who have been trailing the same man he is hunting. They team up for a while and Jess and the two Rangers travel to Navarro, where the Rangers arrest the newly appointed sheriff after finding out he is wanted for petty crimes.

Jess leaves again, believing the two Texas Rangers are staying in Navarro to keep the peace and maybe find out what is really going on. When he find out that Dudley has been hurt and his pa is back in jail after losing his saloon to the bank and that the madam of the local whorehouse has finally confronted the Mayor and the Sheriff, he returns to Navarro to straighten it up once and for all, but the only help he finds in town is Daisy and her girls at the whorehouse.
