Blood thirsty angel/demons have finally found a way out of their imprisonment. Believed to be creatures made to destroy and not feel, the Kindred find their way to a protected relic of ancient times. All while being followed and hunted by a silent and externally deadly beast.

“My pain, it, went away.” Micah looks up enough to stare at Sariel, his body tight, his hands clinched to his chest. Shock flows off him in harsh waves that would normally insight the others into a torturous frenzy. “Then I have brought you to the right place little brother. I am still someone you should trust.” Sariel’s smile only gets wider.

“What about Raphael?” Micah turns and looks toward his wingless brother. “Will this berth help him?” He whips his head back around to look up to Sariel. “Will his hurt go away too?”

Sariel softens further, the glow of the rising sun edging over the run down architecture making him look the part of both demon and angel. He outstretches his arm offering Micah his hand. “That’s the idea big guy.”

Follow the stories of the Dirge Series as they span through time and shape the world you thought you knew into an entirely different beast. Keep a look out for more short stories, novellas, and books about your favorite Dirge Series characters.
