Proceedings of Methods XIV: Papers from the Fourteenth International Conference on Methods in Dialectology, 2011 (Bamberger Beiträge zur Englischen ... / Bamberg Studies in English Linguistics)

This volume of papers from the 14th International Conference on Methods in Dialectology, held at the University of Western Ontario (Canada), 2 to 6 August 2011, brings together recent methodological innovations and current research on the study of dialects and language variation. The research contributions are authored by a range of new and established scholars from different countries working on a number of languages and language varieties. The volume is divided into sections dealing with phonetics and phonology, morphology and syntax, ethnicity and identity, dialect cartography, methods, techniques as well as variation and change.

John Stevenson:

As a student, I exactly feel bored in order to read. If their teacher expected them to go to the library or make a summary for some e-book, they are complained. Just little students that have reading's spirit or real their passion. They just do what the teacher wants, like asked to go to the library. They go to at this time there but nothing reading critically. Any students feel that reading through is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful photographs on there. Yeah, it is for being complicated. Book is very important in your case. As we
