Joseph Girzone wrote his parable Joshua in 1983 and published it himself with neither accompanying fanfare nor expectation of the extraordinary effect it would have on people around the world. With only word-of-mouth for advertising, and by virtue of its simple message of love, Joshua became an international force of spiritual strength. A decade after its modest beginnings, Joshua and its sequels have millions of readers around the world and continue to bring hope and peace to all who seek spiritual nourishment. Father Joseph Girzone retired from the Catholic priesthood in 1986 for health reasons. He then embarked on the surprising writing career that has brought him millions of readers. He lives in Altamont, New York.
