The Wind Principle: Tracking the Movement of God's Spirit in the Life of a Believer Lucas M Aufenkamp

We all tend to define ourselves by what we have experienced. The effect is that we will often dismiss as impossible any destination that is too far removed from what we have come to know. The Wind Principle reveals the exciting truth that a believer's destination cannot be predicted based on either one's point of origin or present position. In John 3:8 Jesus explained: "The wind blows where it wishes, and you hear the sound of it, but cannot tell where it comes from and where it goes. So is everyone who is born of the Spirit." Drawing lessons from biblical characters and personal experience, Lucas challenges believers to unhinge their expectations for the future from their experience in the past and believe that God can do anything in one who has been born of the Spirit. Regardless of whether your past is marked by brokenness or simply humble beginnings, The Wind Principle will encourage you to look ahead with anticipation and faith towards the unexpected, good destination God has in mind for you.
