Makeup (A Short Story) Robert R. McCammon

Small-time thief Calvin Doss has bungled a job. He was supposed to steal Jean Harlow's makeup case. But by accident, he made off with a case that belonged to a B-list horror actor from the 1940s. Little does Calvin know, the makeup case contains more than just the usual pastes and powders. With one application, the powers of horror films' most terrifying characters possess him, unleashing Calvin's fury. Now it's his turn to right some wrongs.
