Gentle Witnessing: Faith Hope Love Rick Christensen

The devotions of Gentle Witnessing are ideal for daily or weekly contemplation. Supported with a scriptural reference, these devotional days will encourage and inspire us to discover and share our personal walk of faith. With each devotional reading, the benefit of being a gentle witness is revealed. You will also be introduced to the poetry of Daniel E. Trospen as the book finishes with his poem, You Will Be My Courage. Following the style of Discovering and Sharing Grace, these devotions cover a wide range of human emotions. The joy of “Meeting Mother Mary” took place on a deserted stretch of highway. “Just Looking” occurred in an empty kitchen as the moving truck pulled away. Starting your day with these creative and concise devotions will encourage you to look at life as far more than routine. They also provide wonderful prompts for your personal journal writings. Gentle Witnessing is a wonderful resource for small group study, especially for people who are spiritually seeking or just taking those first steps on their walk of faith.
