LOVE SONG TO A LONG GONE TIME: Memoirs of a Moviegoer From Way Back Chris O'Grady
Saturday afternoon at the movies! Ten cents bought a lot of entertainment back in the 1930's: a double feature, an animated cartoon, a western, a comedy short, and previews of coming attractions. It was easy to get hooked. Growing up back then, the author went to the movies almost every weekend, developing a lifelong affection for even the most obscure productions of the period. Love Song To A Long Gone Time is guaranteed to get you browsing through the late show listings in your TV guide, hoping to find some of the gems he describes, or searching through the lists of movies on CDs and DVDs and any other way you can get them. Good hunting!
