Peace - Avril Ovenden

Join Avril Ovenden in September as she looks to unravel the concept of shalom, the true meaning of peace – wholeness and harmony. By turning to both the old and new testaments, including some psalms and proverbs, Avril helps us to find personal peace in the storms of everyday life. We learn to lean more on the foundation of God's Word and how, through study, worship and trust, we are able to establish a true sense of peace with Him, which we can then share with others.

Made for God's Work - Eleanor Hewett

As we work through October, Eleanor Hewett explores our various roles in life and how every job has meaning and purpose when carried out with God at the centre. By looking at passages throughout the Bible and the work of different biblical characters, Eleanor explores that whatever our earthly role may be, God uses us all through our daily work and that we should let His spirit work through us. October also sees us focus on the importance of rest and how we should not let our work take over but allow ourselves time to be still with God and reflect on how best we can do His work well.
