It wasn't until the nurse left the room that I realized I'd been strapped in—ankles and wrists—unable to lift myself.

Princess Mariella is satisfied with her quiet life; no love, no men, nothing to distract her from her reading, writing, and bright future. Unfortunately for her, as soon as she becomes of appropriate age her progenitors have something else in store for her.

Our pure and chaste dark skinned lovely is moved from house and home to another land, quite far away from what she's used to, where people treat her differently for all sorts of reasons, her skin only being one. Still set on an arranged marriage for her her progenitors sell her to the highest bidder: Xavier Jones, who wants to see just how virtuous she is, considering all the claims made towards it.

He schedules her for a routine private pre-wedding examination, where he and his team of doctors will do anything to make her crack and show her truly devious side. Anything.
